DAN GILBERT'S DOWNTOWN BUILDINGS

Quicken Loans founder Dan Gilbert moved his headquarters to the Compuware Building in mid-2010. Since then, he and his partners have bought several downtown landmarks to house Quicken-related workers, including:

- 1 First National Building
- 2 Chase Tower
- 3 Dime Building
- 4 Federal Reserve Building
- 5 The M@dison

MORE PLACES TO LIVE

The interest in downtown living as well as the Live Midtown and Live Downtown incentives have helped bring new residential projects that will come online later this year. Among them:

- 6 The Auburn
- 7 Broderick Tower
- 8 Sherbrooke
- 9 The David Whitney Building may add residential units in the next couple of years.

MORE PLACES TO SHOP

The surge in new employees and residents downtown is bringing new retailers to the district. Among the recent openings:

- 10 Great Lakes Coffee Roasting
- 11 Chez-Zara, located in the M@dison
- 12 Ezelli Salon
- 13 Be Nice Yoga
- 14 City Bird
